London, Sept. 20.

THEY Letters from Italy we are advis'd, That the Emperor has ordered a Brevet as General to be made out for the brave Governor of Mirandola, Baron Stentz. 'Tis added that the ſaid Commandant, and 8 other Officers, have been ſet at Liberty, on Condition that they ſhall not ſerve againſt the Allies, either in Italy or Germany, for three Years to come. The Garriſon was conducted Priſoners of War to Parma; and 'tis ſaid, that 430 of them have liſted in the Troops of Spain, upon the Report that they were to be carried to Genoa, and from thence to be tranſported to Oran to fight the Blacks in Africa.

'Tis obſerved of King Auguſtus, that he gives free Leave to the Nobility, to go where they liſt; and he has declared more than once, That their Attachment gave him no further Pleaſure than as it was ſincere and not forced; and that he preferred a ſmall Number of true Friends to a greater Number that were only attached to him in Appearance. His Majeſty has given an Inſtance that ſuch are his Sentiments, by his Conduct to the Palatineſs of Lublin, whoſe Husband, the Count de Tarlo, is with King Staniſlaus at Koningsburg. This Lady being in the Queen's Drawing-room, and the King asking her if ſhe propos'd to ſtay long at Warſaw? ſhe made Anſwer, that ſhe intended to ſet out in 4 or 5 Days to ſee her Brother the Count Branicki at Bialaſtock; upon which the King reply'd, with a great deal of good Nature, You may go, Madam, where you pleaſe, I will not confine you. You are as free to go to Bialaſtock, as to Koningſberg, and will be equally welcome, either to go to your Spouſe, or to ſtay at my Court. I deſire nothing but what comes chearfully.

London, Sept. 27. A Rumour that Prince Eugene intended to put a Body of Imperial Troops into Manheim, as well as to take Poſſeſſion of the Bridge and Port of that Place upon the Rhine, determined the Elector Palatine to ſend his Grand Marſhal the Count de Bevern, to know whether the Prince really had ſuch an Intention, to whom his Highneſs made this Declaration, with which the Elector Palatine was well ſatisfy'd, viz.

" That nothing could be more falſe than " ſuch a Suggeſtion. That it could only be " the Invention of the Diſaffected, to make " the Elector of Palatine believe that he (Prince " Eugene) was capable of forming any Deſign " againſt ſuch a Fortreſs of the Empire as " Manheim; That he was the further from " any ſuch Thought, becauſe it was his conſtant Cuſtom to act in all Caſes, openly, and " with Honour: That if it ſhould happen, " that the Emperor ſhould find it neceſſary, " for the Good of the Empire, that his Army " ſhould paſs through or poſſeſs the Fortreſs " of Manheim, Leave would firſt be deſired of " the Empire: That in ſuch a Caſe, it was not " doubted that this Prince, after the Example " of the other Electors and Members of the " Empire, would grant the Army of the Em- " pire free Paſſage; and that if, contrary to " all Expectation, it were refuſed, no indirect " Methods would be uſed to obtain it, but ſuch " as are moſt conformable to the Laws and " Cuſtoms of the Empire."

We are aſſured, That the Magiſtrates of Hamburg have at laſt agreed to abolish the Bank, upon certain Conditions, as the only Means to bring about an Accommodation with the Court of Denmark. It is likewiſe ſaid, that it having been repreſented, that the Works begun at Ritzbuttle, had not the deſired Succeſs, and that there are great Numbers of Sick amongſt the Troops which were ſent thither, it was reſolved to diſcontinue the Works, and recall the Troops.

Friday Morning laſt Week a Child about four Years old, was found murdered in the Fields behind Powis Houſe, in Great Ormond-ſtreet. The Child was naked, and had its Head cut in a miſerable Manner: It is ſaid its Name was was Hallen, Son to Mr. Hallen, a Bailiff; the Child was ſuppoſed to have been murdered by the Wife of a Perſon Hallen arreſted three Days ago.

London, Sept. 18. Letters from the French Army in Germany ſay, that the Marſhal de Coigny made a general Forage the 14th Inſt. in all the Villages to the Left of his Army: This is the fourteenth or fifteenth general Forrage he has made this Campaign in the Empire, and it is thought that the Electorate of Mentz can't recover itſelf theſe ſeven Years to come; ſeveral other Parts are much in the ſame Condition: But the French Peaſants have not yet loſt as much as a Cock of Hay, a Peck of Oats, a Pig or a Fowl, nor have they paid any Contribution as the Germans have done: All theſe Articles are worth the Conſideration of the N----y Gentlemen.

We have Advice from Venice, that Achmet Baſhaw, formerly Governor of Babylon, and who now commands the Ottoman Army in Perſia, is declar'd Grand Vizir.

They write from Madrid, that the Germans taken Priſoners in the Kingdom of Naples, and from thence carried into Spain, where they took Service, have almoſt every Man of them deſerted and gone over to Portugal. The Spaniards are rightly ſerved; for contrary to the Rules of Honour, and Laws of Humanity, which a fortunate Army ought always to obſerve, they ſo terrify'd the Men with Threats of ſending them to Oran, that thoſe unhappy People had no Way to avoid roaſting in Africa, but taking on in the Service of Spain againſt their own natural Lord and Maſter, and we now ſee them taking the firſt Opportunity to return to him again.

Our Letters from Cadiz of the 10th Inſtant ſay, That three Ships are arriv'd there from the South Seas, two of which have brought ſeven Millions of Pieces of Eight, and a Million and half in Cochineal; the third is laded with Snuff for the King's Accompt.

We have the following Letter from the Camp of Guſſolengo of the 9th Inſtant.

THE Imperialiſts ſtill appear in the Neighbourhood of La Ferrara, as if they had a Deſign to attack that Poſt which incommodes them very much; tho' we don't doubt but the Approach of our Army will tye them up to their good Behaviour. The Troops encamp'd here are to paſs the Adige ſome time this Day over two Bridges getting ready for that Purpoſe, the Country on the other Side of the River being much more fertile and abundant than the Place we are in; and as ſoon as this flying Camp has got over, the Marſhal de Noailles will go and poſſeſs himſelf of the Poſts he intends to fortify, and the Spaniards are to go take Poſſeſſion of the Camp of Zevio. The Duke of Montemar ſtaid three Days in the Marſhal's Quarters; but left them yeſterday to go and ſend a Regiment of Spaniſh Horſe to Bologna, in order to meet the heavy Artillery for the Siege of Mantua. The French having received Information that the Enemy had Magazines of Hay about St. Stefano and St. Bonifacio, they ſeiz'd all, amounting to 3000 Waggon Loads. The Spaniards have alſo taken five Barks laden with Meal, Oil, dry Fiſh and Pontons, which the Imperialiſts had brought by Sea from Trieſte: All theſe Prizes have very much diſorder'd their Affairs, they not having too much to ſubſiſt upon and not expecting that the Allies would enter the Venetian Dominions. The Marſhal de Noailles has permitted all the Ladies to leave Mantua, and to bring their Children along with them; he has likewiſe order'd them to be eſcorted to what Places they think fit to retire to; but at preſent no Body is ſuffer'd to come out of the Town. Thoſe Ladies have confirm'd what we were told before by Deſerters, relating to the Sickneſs in the Garriſon; they ſay there are not 1500 in the whole Town but what are ſick, and the Commandant has been oblig'd to arm 2000 of the Inhabitants."

By this Account Mantua, how well ſoever fortify'd and advantageouſly ſituated, can make no great Defence againſt an Army of 50000 Men, for ſo many the Beſiegers are likely to be, if not more.

Extract of a Leter from on board the Durſley Galley, Capt. Thomas Smith, in the Harbour of Lisbon, dated Aug. 20. O. S.

OUR Fleet ſtill remains at Lisbon, and we have no Thoughts of moving till the Arrival of the Brazil Fleet, which is not expected home till October; nor have we any Certainty whether we ſhall ſail for England this Winter or not.

The Portugueze have been raiſing new Recruits, and Yeſterday began to tranſport them to the Frontiers of Portugal; their Army will conſiſt of about 40,000 Men. The King, we hear, is ſhortly to make a Tour to the Army, and deſigns to reſide in Camp. Things here have much the Face of War at preſent.

Mr. Franklin,

The following is a Hymn, on the Nativity of CHRIST; which pleaſe to give room in your next.

from, Sir, your unknown Friend, &c.

WHAT ſounds harmonious ſtrike the ears!
See! darkneſs flies, the Light appears,
The ſun a purer beam diſplays,
And ſhines with more diſtinguiſh'd rays;
E'n Nature 'ſelf with chearful grace,
In triumph ſhews her radiant face.
Odours diffuſe, ye ſpicy beds;
Cedars, bow down your awful heads.
Soft ſtreams, your joys in murmurs tell;
And boiſterous waves, exulting ſwell.
MESSIAH comes!— in homage now,
Let univerſal nature bow!
Hail! happy day that gave him birth,
And brought the joyful news to Earth.
Whilſt quires of Angles hovering on the wing,
Sang hymns and anthems to the new born King.
Glory to God, who reigns above,
Fountain of univerſal love;
Good will to Men that dwell below,
Let peace on Earth eternal flow;
Thus heavenly breaſts in friendſhip glow.
Let Men redeem'd their joys reſound,
And Angels pleas'd return the ſound;
Since wildly through th' abandon'd Skies,
Th' Arch-rebel in Confuſion flies,
And a new Heav'n and Earth take place,
Which Adam's Sons reſtor'd ſhall grace.

Let

Let loud Hozannas JESUS CHRIST proclaim,
Sing Haleluja's to his sacred Name,
And through all quarters of the Globe go round,
Whilst Demons tremble at the sacred sound.

An Acquaintance of JACOB TAYLOR's perusing the Reading in JACOB's Almanack for the Year 1736, had the following Thoughts.

Still green with Bays each ancient Altar stands,
Above the Reach of Sacrilegious Hands. Pope.

WHERE Nature does her greatest Gifts bestow,
Much more to her than to the Schools we owe;
And where she fails her Blessings to impart
In vain we strive to fill her Wants with Art;
Nought can so great Deficiency supply;
Each fond Attempt gives its own self the Lie:
But on the deep Foundation which she lays
Art's Superstructure may arise with Praise.
The Statuary, or the Painter can
Display the well-form'd Outside of a Man;
Mechanicks too, by Rules can Motion give;
But who on Earth can make the Picture live?
What Art, what Science can perfect the Whole,
While yet it wants---it wants the thinking Soul?
This Heav'nly Gift let Writers learn to prize,
And, where they can't repay, not rob the Wise.
High in Esteem let each bright Genius stand,
Those who can teach deserve the chief Command;
And those Contempt, who to fine Things pretend
For nothing but the pleasure to transcend.
Their weak Endeavours on weak Eyes may shine:
A diff'rent praise, my Friend, is due to thine.
For thy great Parts, and Works, thy Name shall be Grateful to Men of Thought, and dear to me.
Has thy long Silence made thee stupid seem?
Thou nod'st sometimes, but some forever dream.
Does any Man traduce thee, let him rise;
He knows thee not, or envies one more wise.
But I, warm'd with thy unextinguish'd Fire,
Thy lasting Sense and Spirit must admire.

An EPITAPH on Margery Scott, who died at Dunkill in Scotland, February, 1728.

STOP Passenger, until my Life you read,
The Living may get Knowledge from the Dead.
Five times five Years I led a Virgin's Life;
Ten times five Years I was a virtuous Wife:
Ten times five Years I liv'd a Widow chast,
Now tired of this mortal Life I rest.
Between my Cradle and my Grave have seen,
Eight mighty Kings of Scotland and a Queen:
Four times five Years a Common Wealth I saw,
Ten times the Subjects rose against the Law.
Twice did I see old Prelacy pull'd down,
And twice the Cloak was humbled by the Gown;
An End of Stewart's Race; I say no more,
I saw my Country sold for English Ore.
Such Desolation in my Time hath been,
An End of all Perfection I have seen.

Pennsylvania, ss. THE Proprietaries, from the several Notices given to the Inhabitants of this Province, for the Payment of their Arrears of Quitrent, fully expected they should not have been laid under a Necessity of urging the Tenants by any further Publication, to do what is so indispensably their Duty, and that by which they hold their Estates.
